

VETERANS AND SONS
TO BE AFFILIATED.

Lieutenant General Stephen D. Lee's Latest Orders on This Subject.

The following general orders have been issued from the New Orleans headquarters, United Confederate Veterans:

The United Confederate Veterans are desirous of establishing closer relations with the junior organization of Sons of Confederate Veterans. With this purpose in view the joint committee, U. C.
V., makes a few practical suggestions to carry this union into effect, all authorized by general order 303.

"To the United Confederate Veterans: All organizations should stimulate in every way the formation and sustenance of camps of United Sons of Confederate Veterans, and have them with you whenever possible.

"State Divisions: 'Appointment at once the joint committee on co-operation, as provided in clause 1, par. 2, general order 303, and notify State divisions of United Sons of Confederate Veterans.
At all reunions extend to the Sons the privileges of the floor and at the opening ceremonies, especially, let them take part in the speaking therein:

"Camps Invite the Sons (of camps) to all your meetings and social gatherings, particularly those where historical matters are presented. Change your constitutions so that the Sons, members of United Sons of Confederate Veterans, may become members of your camp with such privileges as you may determine; right to vote; right to speak or not; right to contribute to your treasury or not. Under general order 303 you can give them 'such privileges of membership as each camp may determine.' But remember the proviso—that such Son is a member of some duly organized camp belonging to the United Sons of Confederate Veterans. Be liberal in dealing with them and by loving kindness make them feel that they are the Sons of the veterans' camp."

"To the United Sons of Confederate Veterans: Under general order 303, you have the right given you by the highest authority of the United Confederate Veterans, to which all subordinate organizations must, and we feel sure will, cheerfully and lovingly assent:

1. "To participate in all conventions at the opening ceremonies and have the privileges of the floor at all reunions of veterans.

2. "To become members of any camp of United Confederate Veterans on such terms as said camp may describe.

tory results," says Mrs. F. L. Phelps,

FULL OF TRAGIC MEANING

Are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At Lau-

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Laurens Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad cough removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great chance can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Laurens readers.

J. R. Sample, farmer, near Greenwood, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and can recommend them as a good remedy for the back and kidneys.
I was troubled for a long time with kidney secretions, which were full of sediment, very dark and of a strong odor and caused me annoyance during the night. My back has caused me great suffering especially at night, right across the small of it. A dull aching pain existed which caused me to lay awake all hours of the night, thereby losing rest, greatly to my discomfort as well as to the derangement of my general health. I tried all kinds of remedies, liniments and plasters, but nothing gave me any relief. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our papers I obtained them. Since using them according to directions, the secretions from the kidneys cleared up and the backache has left me. I attribute this result entirely to Doan's Kidney Pills.

Plenty more proof like this from Laurens people. Call at Palmetto Drug Co.'s store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

LAUGH AND GROW FAT.

Under this standing head we intend to publish each week some of the work of the fun-makers all over the country.
There is enough of sorrow and sadness that has to go in. We would bring out the bright side and if the readers of THE ADVERTISER will send us any clippings that have dispelled a frown for them we will appreciate it and pass it on to others, for you. Clip them from any source but indicate their origin in order that we may give proper credit.
Send prose or verse. Spice and variety is what we want.—(EDITOR ADVER-TISER.)

LITTLE TALK HELPED.—"Remember, my son, that effort counts. There is an axiom which says. 'All may do, what by man has been done.'"

"I exploded that theory last night, father. I tried to reach your record, but the cards were against me."—Chicago Journal.

REPARTER—"Hubby, dear, I can't wait to tell you what I'm going to buy you!"

"Darling wife, what is it?"
"Well, I am going to get a silver card-tray, a bronze Hercules for the mantelpiece, and a new Persian rug to put in the front of my dressing-table.
What are you going to do for me, Tootsey?"

"I've been thinking, Jane, and have made up my mind to get you a new shaving-brush."—Tit-Bits.

TREATING THE PALLBEARERS.—"I read the other day," said "Tom" Dunn, "where a German over in Hoboken left $25 in his will to treat his friends after his funeral. Of course, the Germans never did anything that Irish could not equal, and so that story reminded me of another of a Hibernian friend of mine. The doctor told him he had only a few hours to live. He called me over and says he:

"Tom, I want you to take $10 of me money that's in me wallet and treat me pallbearers."

"It was a touching moment. Struggling with my emotions, I said to him:
"I'll do it, Billy. But shall I treat 'em going out or coming back?"

"Treat 'em going out," says Billy,
"I won't be with you coming back."—Buffalo Courier.

DECOLLETTE.—She was magnificent in ball attire.

"By what right sir do you tell me I shall not wear this gown?" she demanded, with flashing eyes.

"Before we were married, your old father asked me if I could keep you in clothes, and I assured him I could."
—Puck.

DON'T BORROW TROUBLE.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At Laurens Drug Co. and Pal-
